Doctrine of Complete Symptom and Concomitants 2. Doctrine of Pathological Generals 3. Doctrine of Causation and Time 4. Clinical Rubrics 5. Evaluation of Remedies 6. Fever Totality 7. Concordances Time Here the medicines are grouped under broad division of Time like day time, morning, forenoon, noon, etc. There is no specific hours mentioned unlike in Kent's repertory. This sub-section of time is given at the end of each section This sub-section specifies the aggravation of complaints at a particular time

Concomitants . This is a major contribution of Boger to the Homoeopathic system of medicine • He has worked hard to collect concomitants from different sources namely, provings, clinical experience and verifications, which were not accessible to the profession earlier

Cross reference This is another significant sub-section, which makes the repertory more useful and comprehensible. • In our day-to-day practice, we get a maze of symptoms in some cases and in a few there is scarcity of expressions, but in both conditions we have to evaluate and come to the characteristic symptoms for a prescription

Boger Boenninghausen's Characteristics and Repertory - Boger Boenninghausen's Characteristics and Repertory by Talks on Homoeopathy By Dr. Ronak Chauhan 354 views 1 year ago 35 minutes - Basic information on BBCR. It's arrangements and usefulness in homoeopathic, practice for studentt and practitioners.

Amelioration . It is found in practice that patient finds it difficult to present Ameliorating factors, which decrease the suffering • Thus this sub-section contains lesser number of rubrics and is given lesser importance in the repertorization Concomitants . This is a major contribution of Boger to the Homoeopathic system of medicine • He has worked hard to collect concomitants from different sources namely, provings, clinical experience and verifications, which were not accessible to the profession earlier

Cross reference This is another significant sub-section, which makes the repertory more useful and comprehensible. • In our day-to-day practice, we get a maze of symptoms in some cases and in a few there is scarcity of expressions, but in both conditions we have to evaluate and come to the characteristic symptoms for a prescription

Pon tus ojos en Jesús

No menosprecies a nadie

Tu corazón contrito y humillado

Goces de gozo y alegría

Tu destino está escrito

Cuando Dios quiere sacar lo mejor de ti

Adas y Mardoqueo

El Espíritu de Dios es poderoso

Los esquemas

Las lágrimas que se vierten en el infierno

Las lágrimas que se vierten en la presencia de Dios

La tempestad más grande

No siempre se echa a perder

Dios es el alfarero

No menosprecies tu matrimonio

Dios quiere lo verdadero

La mano del alfarero está sobre ti

El Espíritu de Dios lo sabe

El te hará su reina

Un día Dios me dijo

Esta palabra ha sido para mí
