ADVANCED ENGLISH STORY Take a Chance B2 | C1 | Level 4 + 5 | British English with Subtitles

English story is perfect for English learners who are borderline B2 / C1 level. Enjoy this B2 + ...

They can switch off when they go home, whereas James always worries about his students and whether everything is ready to go for the next day. He's constantly on edge.

Unfortunately, not all of his colleagues agree, but they are just as boring as those writing exercises! Talking to them is about as exciting as watching paint dry. He came to realise that people don't always like change. Some people enjoy doing the same things day after day, but James would rather explore new things than get stuck in a rut.

He really wanted to go travelling, perhaps to New Zealand. But he had to try and find a job that would allow him to do it.

Together, James and Louise decided to write an action plan of what they wanted to do within the next year. Number one was to decide on the country they wanted to travel to! Then they realised they would need to retrain if they wanted to be able to work remotely and travel.

Then they looked into their career options. After taking some online skill and personality tests, and going through all of their qualifications, they came up with 3 options each.

She looked for more options and found lots of online schools that wouldn't charge you a course fee if you got a job in one of their suggested companies. Was this a trap? She looked into reviews and forums to see what was legit and what wasn't.

Louise was very nervous. But she knew it was the right thing to do. She had to take a chance! She wrote her notice letter for her job and would give it to her boss the next day.

During the next few months, Louise and James handed in their notices, interviewed tenants for their flat, and planned their trip. They decided they would travel in a camper van!

The interview was held over zoom. It was great! She was honest with her answers and told them exactly what she wanted from the job.

The next day, she received a call from the recruitment department to say they wanted to meet her in-person. The job would be available remotely, but they wanted to make sure she was a "team fit" before they offered her the position.

Interview day came along. Louise got the tube into central London and tried to calm her nerves along the way by listening to her favourite podcast.

James realised that if he wanted to have a flexible lifestyle, he was going to have to start teaching online. He was happy to do that, but he also wanted to have a second income stream. That's when he started to think about YouTube or social media as an option.

In his spare time, James watched a lot of educational YouTube! From English with Lucy to Real English with Real Teachers, he started to see a pattern of what did and didn't work. He decided to set up a profile.

With Louise's new job, and James' online teaching and YouTube channel, it was going to be one hell of a ride. They couldn't wait to get to New Zealand and explore. They were glad they decided to take a chance and try something new.
