The managerial context of OB can viewed from the perspective of basic management functions, critical management skills, and overall human resource management.

MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS Most find it useful to conceptualize the activities performed by managers as reflecting one or more of four basic functions.

PLANNING Planning, the first managerial function, is the process of determining the organization's desired future position and deciding how best to get there.

ORGANIZING The process of designing jobs, grouping jobs into manageable units, and establishing patterns of authority among jobs and groups of jobs.

LEADING Leading, the third major managerial function, is the process of motivating members of the organization to work together toward the organization's goals.

CONTROLLING The process of monitoring and correcting the actions of the organization and its people to keep them headed toward their goals.

MainTake Away: Seeking Wisdom Pt. 1

The Advice we give Others is the Advice that we Ourselves Need Underestimated Bias From Own Self-Interest & Incentives -Look Deeply at Track Records. It's Naive to think Projections have any Utility whatsoever. Do Not Train Learning by Force. Lead them By What Amuses Them.

Self Deception & Denial-Distortion to Reality to Reduce Pain or increase Pleasure. Wishful Thinking Bias from Deprivation Syndrome -Strongly Reacting (including Desiring and valuing More) when Something we like and Have (or Almost Have) is (or Threatens to be) Taken Away or "Lost" Includes Desiring and Valuing More What We Can't Have or What is or Threatens Less Available to Be. In Investing. It is a Mistake to Try to Make it Back the way you Lost it.

Impatience -Valuing the Present More Highly than the Future

Bias from Anchoring-Over-Weighing Certain Initial Information as a Reference Point for Future Decisions

Bias from Reciprocation Tendency - Repaying in Kind what Others Have Done for or to use like Favors, Concessions, Information, and Attitudes. People Don't Want to Feel Indebted. Allow People to Give Back What We've Given Them

Bias from Over-Influence by Social Proof - Imitating the Behavior of Many Others or similar Others. Includes Crowd Folly. When All are Accountable, No One is Accountable.

Sensemaking-Constructing Explanations that Fit an Outcome. Includes Being too Quick in Drawing Conclusions. Also Thinking Events that have Happened were More Predictable than They Were. Everything Seems Stupid When it Fails. In Hindsight, Everything Seems Obvious.

Believing First & Doubting later - Believing What is Not True, Especially when Distracted

27. Mental Confusion from Physical or Psychological Pain, the Influence of Chemicals or Diseases
