#Kilroy was here #WWII graffiti #wartime meme #iconic phrase #cultural phenomenon
