Travels Through Burgundy

Champagne-Ardenne and Burgundy have more to offer than just some of the world's greatest wines. Both regions are rich in fascinating history and in lovely old churches, abbeys, and chateaux; both are criss-crossed with gentle waterways among tranquil old towns and villages; and both contain some of the wildest, least populated areas of France. The great hills, forests, and looping rivers of the Ardennes and thick forests, streams, and pools of Burgundy's Morvan are wild lands of legend and mythology. Champagne has caught some of the hurried ways of Paris, but Burgundy, for centuries an independent country, remains calm.

Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture

Set in the rolling Oxfordshire hills, Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons is a bastion of haute cuisine and a beacon of l'art de vivre. The only country house hotel in Britain to have held two Michelin stars for more than three decades, it is the result of an Anglo-French love affair which began in 1982 when a young chef called Raymond Blanc first set eyes on an ancient manor house and decided, there and then, to transform it into the restaurant-hotel of his dreams. Enter the iron gates and embark on a personal tour of Le Manoir through the four seasons. Discover Raymond's most celebrated dishes as he gently guides you through sumptuous recipes that can be prepared at home - such as Soupe au pistou and Souffle de rhubarbe - and the extraordinary examples of haute cuisine - including Theme sur la tomate and Cassolette d'abricot - which have earned the restaurant its status as one of the world's legendary gastronomic destinations. With spectacular photography of the luxurious rooms and the ravishing gardens, as well as beautiful and witty illustrations, this is a landmark book to covet and cherish.

Australia has the ideal conditions for growing and processing table olives. In a climate where the majority of table olives eaten by Australians are imported, real opportunities exist for a domestic table olive industry. Attention to quality and safety will ensure that Australian table olive producers are in a position to tackle and make inroads into the international export market. The aim of this manual is to provide olive growers and processors with internationally based guidelines for ensuring the quality and safety of processed table olives. This manual covers all aspects essential for the production of safe, nutritious and marketable table olives including site selection, recommended varieties, pest and disease control, primary and secondary processing, and quality and safety testing.

Australian Wine: styles and tastes, people and places is a key to understanding and enjoying Australian wine. Absorbing text and stunning photography take the reader on a journey through the story of Australian wine from the vineyard to the winery to the cellar and to the wine in the glass. The contents include topics such as, the history of Australian wine, how to taste wine, a guide to cellaring wine, wine and food, wine and health, vine growth, berry ripening, organic and biodynamic grapegrowing and winemaking, sustainability, how the different styles of wine ? dry white wines, semi-sweet and sweet white wines, sparkling wines, dry red wines and fortified wines ? are made and how they taste, how climate, soils and vineyard management and winemaking practices impact on the taste of a wine, wine regions of Australia, regionality, terroir and provenance. It introduces the reader to many of the people who grow grapes and make wine across the Australian wine scene. It tells stories of places where vines grow and the importance of place in the taste of a wine. Overall it is an interesting and educational read of the story of Australian wine from its beginnings to the present day. The concise, easy to follow educational format contains 290 pages of informative text, maps, wine style guides and over 300 photographs to illustrate the diversity and richness of Australian wine. The four co-authors are experienced educators, winemakers, wine journalists and commentators. The book can be used in wine training courses, by cellar door personnel and by the wine consumer who enjoys a good read and who would like to know a little more about Australian wine.

AB Bookman's Weekly

In a prolific 40-year career Alan Coren wrote for the Times, Observer, Tatler, Daily Mail, Mail on Sunday, Listener, Punch, and the New Yorker, and published more than 20 books including The Sanity Inspector, Golfing for Cats, and The Collected Bulletins of Idi Amin (he turned down an invitation from Amin to visit Uganda saying, "I'll probably end up as a sandwich"). Even 20 years ago he estimated that he had published six million words, or 10 copies of War and Peace. This anthology draws together the best of Coren's previously published material as well as new unpublished autobiographical material. Coren was one of Britain's most prolific and now much-missed humorists, finding the comedy of life all around him and rendering it, hilariously and compellingly, in polished and witty prose which will be eagerly devoured by his loyal fanbase.

The British National Bibliography

J. J. Raven's learned and comprehensive work on the "Bells of England" arouses much interest, as it is the last work of a distinguished antiquary, who has accomplished much for the study of English archaeology. For a period of half a century J. J. Raven has been engaged on the fascinating study of campanology. He was one of the pioneers of the science, and therefore wrote this monograph with authority and accurate knowledge. We have many volumes on the bell-lore of different counties. The late H. T. Ellacombe recorded the bells of East Anglia. Thomas North those of five of the midland shires, Mr. Stahlschmidt did Kent and Surrey, Mr. Cox, Buckinghamshire, and the Rev. T. M. N. Owen, Huntingdonshire; other workers are engaged upon other counties; and J. J. Raven has now told the story of the bells of England as far as it was possible to do so with all available information, and a very graphic story it is. The remains of the British period, the notices of bells by Saxon chroniclers, lamentations over the destruction of Norman bells, owing to the falling of many central towers, the gradual development of shape, inscriptions, foundry marks, and Longobardic lettering, the story of early foundries, such as those of London, York, King's Lynn, Wokingham and Reading, the history of change-ringing; legends and bell law, are some of the subjects of this volume. Enthusiastic bell-lovers are rare: we doubt not that J. J. Raven's book will greatly increase their number, and lead others to complete these chronicles of the bells of England by climbing the belfries and reading the inscriptions on the bells of some counties which have not been thoroughly explored. -Magazine of Christian Art [1907]

Decanter

A landmark in Australian wine publishing. Superbly crafted and uncompromisingly presented, this limited-edition collectors' item of original photographs and words lives the story of one of the world's most celebrated wines.

Bring a Parisian je ne sais quoi to your style, wherever you live. Dress Like a Parisian is a wise and witty guide to finding your personal style, taking inspiration from how real Parisian women dress.

With personal stylist and fashion blogger Aloïs Guinut as your guide, you can explore which colours, shapes and styles work best for you, whatever the occasion. Aloïs reveals Parisian style secrets, rejects restrictive fashion rules and shares her favourite shops and brands, demonstrating how you can use fashion to enhance your personality rather than shaping your personality to fashion. In the words of the patron saint of Parisian women, Yves St. Laurent, 'fashions fade, style is eternal.' This book is illustrated with photography shot on the streets of Paris plus illustrations by acclaimed fashion illustrator, Judith van den Hoek, who has worked with Elle, Hermes, Vogue, Prada and Grazia.

Champagne-Ardenne and Burgundy

This collection of fourteenth- and fifteenth-century documents is designed for students of Chaucer and Middle English literature. It makes readily available accounts of key historical events and descriptions of pertinent cultural phenomena. Brings together in one volume fourteenth- and fifteenth-century historical and cultural texts. Documents shed light on the themes and styles that appear in Chaucer and other Middle English literature. Contains twelve important images from the period. Concise introductions and bibliographies accompany all documents.

THE CHRONICLES OF NEWGATE

The basic text for Alcoholics Anonymous.

A Survey of Staffordshire: Containing the Antiquities of that County

This book provides guidance for judicial officer in the conduct of civil proceedings, from preliminary matters to the conduct of final proceedings and the assessment of damages and costs. It contains concise statements of relevant legal principles, references to legislation, sample orders for judicial official to use where suitable and checklists applicable to various kinds of issues that arise in the course of managing and conducting civil litigation.

Investigating the 2016 EU Referendum in the UK, The Language of Brexit explores the ways in which 'Brexit' campaigners utilised language more persuasively than their 'Remain' counterparts. Drawing parallels with effective political discourse used worldwide, this book highlights the linguistic features of an increasingly popular style of political campaigning. Concentrating on the highly successful and emotive linguistic strategies employed by the Brexit campaigners against the comparatively lacklustre Remain camp, Buckledee makes a case for the contribution of language towards the narrow 52-48% Brexit victory. Using primary examples, what emerges is how urging people to have the courage to make a bid for freedom naturally invokes more grandiloquent language, powerful metaphors and rousing partisan tone than a campaign which, on balance, argues that it's best to simply stick with the status quo. Examining the huge amount of discourse generated before, during and since the June 2016 EU Referendum, The Language of Brexit looks into the role language played in the democratic process and the influence and impact it had on electors, leading to an unexpected result and uncertain future.

Producing Table Olives

Enter a spellbinding world in this soaring magical adventure, perfect for fans of Nevermoor, A Pinch of Magic and Rooftoppers. 'Wildly inventive . . . full of laugh-out-loud humour, enchanting magic and rebellious hope. I loved it' Catherine Doyle 'Imaginative . . . entertaining, comical and breezy, and the settings are conjured in transporting detail' The Times Cordelia comes from a long line of magical milliners, who weave alchemy and enchantment into every hat. In Cordelia's world, Making - crafting items such as hats, cloaks, watches, boots and gloves from magical ingredients - is a rare and ancient skill, and only a few special Maker families remain. When Cordelia's father Prospero and his ship, the Jolly Bonnet, are lost at sea during a mission to collect hat ingredients, Cordelia is determined to find him. But Uncle Tiberius and Aunt Ariadne have no time to help the littlest Hatmaker, for an ancient rivalry between the Maker families is threatening to surface. Worse, someone seems to be using Maker magic to start a war. It's up to Cordelia to find out who, and why . . . Featuring gorgeous black-and-white illustrations throughout by Paola Escobar. 'An utterly charming adventure full of wildness, wit, magic and heart' Anna James 'Absolutely wonderful' Emma Carroll 'A cosy magical adventure peppered with charming detail' The Bookseller
