Three days our world was broken; the Lord of life lay dead.

"Take up your cross," he told us who followed where he led.

Would we now hang in torment with thieves on ev'ry side

Our Passover shattered, our hope crucified?

Three days we hid in silence, in bitter fear and grief.

Three days, and on the third day, the women came at dawn.

His tomb, they said, was empty, his broken body gone.

We've seen him at this table; we've shared his bread and wine.

Hearts burning bright within us, we've seen his glory shine.

Three days our world was broken and in an instant healed

God's covenant of mercy in mystery revealed.

Two thousand years are one day in God's eternal sight

And yesterday's sorrows are this day's delight.

Though still Christ's body suffers, pierced daily by the sword

Yet death has no dominion: the risen Christ is Lord!
