Road Trip Journal

'A Rant and a Road Trip' chronicles an alternative holiday, you might say, a heart-on-the-sleeve road trip. Its not so much about where Brendan OLeary went, but what he found when he got there and the people he met along the way. This journal covers five weeks spent on the road, drifting from town to town and motel to motel, living out of a suitcase and, for the most part, never knowing where the next stop will be. But believe it when OLeary tells you that it can be a very liberating experience, seeing another town, another diner, another motel, the story continuing as he travels to new places. Nothing can beat the feeling that comes from unexpected discoveries made while traveling. As you travel through the pages of this journal, you'll see what OLeary sees and feel what he feels. From New Jersey to Texas to California, OLeary shares his thoughts about the places he visits and the people he meets. Written as very personal journal entries, OLeary examines the essence of America through his experiences and shares the ups and downs of living life on the road.

Let's Go on a Road Trip

This Road Trip Travel Journal is set up to make documenting your trip easy and fun. Writing down the information as you go along helps you remember your trip easier and stay with you longer. I've set up this log book in the following way: 1. The first section is where you can record the Date and who you're traveling with. 2. Next you'll see a section to record the Weather Conditions. 3. The next section is where you can jot down where you're traveling to and from, the distance that will be, and how long it took. 4. Then you'll see a Traffic section to rate how bad the traffic was. 5. Next is an area to plan out your Travel Route a little more, including Stops, Time of Arrival, and Highlights/Notes. Be as detailed as possible here, and fill it out with specific moments. 6. Dining Experiences is the next section, and you can write down what you ate, how much, and what restaurants you stopped at. 7. The last section is Sleepover Experiences, where you can write your thoughts about where you're staying - the hotel, a friend's house, a camp site, etc. All of these sections are meant to be adaptable to many types of trips, but specifically helpful for road trips. Enjoy (and document) the journey!
