The universe has a beginning, so needs a cause
 How do atheists deal with the need for a first cause?
 Why a supernatural cause (i.e. God) is a logical explanation
 Why believe in the God of the Bible, as opposed to any other god?
 Why belief in the biblical God was foundational to modern science

A Case of Great and Present Use

An assessment of the importance of oaths, and the taking of, and the idea of national covenants during a turbulent time in English history. This book studies the oaths and covenants taken during the late sixteenth to the late seventeenth century, a time of great religious and political upheaval, assessing their effect and importance. From the reign of Mary I to the Exclusion crisis, Protestant writers argued that England was a nation in covenant with God and urged that the country should renew its contract with the Lord through taking solemn oaths. In so doing, they radically modified understandings of monarchy, political allegiance and the royal succession. During the civil war, the tendering of oaths of allegiance, the Protestation of 1641 and the Vow and Covenant and Solemn League and Covenant of 1643 (all described as embodiments of England's national covenant) also extended the boundaries of the political nation. The poor and illiterate, women as well as men, all subscribed to these tests of loyalty, which were presented as social contracts between the Parliament and the people. The Solemn League and Covenant in particular continued to provoke political controversy after 1649 and even into the 1690s many English Presbyterians still viewed themselves as bound by its terms; the author argues that these covenants had a significant, and until now unrecognised, influence on 'politics-out-of-doors' in the eighteenth century. EDWARD VALLANCE is Lecturer in Early Modern British History, University of Liverpool.

A case of great and present use, whether we may lawfully hear the now conforming ministers, who are re-ordained, and have renounced the Covenant, and some of them supposed to be scandalous in their lives? By a late eminent Congregational divine [P. Nye.].

Puritan studies is one of the most heavily researched areas of scholarship in both England and the United States. In this in-depth exploration of the relationship between Puritans in England and New England, Francis J. Bremer challenges the view that the colonists turned away from English Puritans in the 1640s. Rather, he convincingly demonstrates that the two communities retained a complex, symbiotic connection - a communion - throughout the seventeenth century, and that the clergy on both sides of the Atlantic saw themselves as closely linked in their spiritual mission. Focusing on the interaction between social experience and the shaping of belief, Bremer thoroughly analyzes how Puritan clergymen of a congregational persuasion came together in a godly communion and examines how that communion sustained them in times of trouble and physical dispersal. He explains the social forces that led to the articulation of early Congregationalism and details the significance of trans-Atlantic religious exchanges through correspondence, associations, publications, and other devices. Bremer traces the first-generation Puritans from their formative years at Cambridge University through the creation of a network of clerical friendships, through the flight to Holland and to New England, to the death of Oliver Cromwell and the beginnings of division within Congregationalism. This thought-provoking volume makes a solid contribution to Puritan studies and offers a basis for further discussions of the trans-Atlantic aspects of the Congregational community.

"The editor's preface (1707), p. xiii stated that the works of Richard Baxter are 'perhaps the best body of practical divinity that is extant in our own or any other tongue.' Richard Baxter lived from 1615-1691. The DIRECTORY was completed in 1665. Its scope was intended to cover all of practical theology, a summa of casuistry . . ." Timothy Keller calls it "the greatest manual on Biblical counseling ever produced."

Does He Create People Who Do Evil Unrighteous Killing

The Bible Separates the Evil Part from God's Ultimate Will

But To Go to the Point of What I'D Like To Know More about Is When and God Allowed Jesus To Be Tempted by Satan for His Purpose To Show Us How We Can To Follow Jesus Exam but What I Don't Understand Is How the Devil Could Take Jesus Up on a Mountain and Show Him the Kingdoms of the World and Say these Will Be Yours if You Bow Down and Worship Me So I Just Can't Concept Get that Concept in My Mind about How Satan Would Have that Power over Jesus I Know He's Prince the Power of the Air and and All these Descriptions of Jesus but How Could He Be Given that Power To Take Jesus Up on a Mountaintop

You've Brought Me Very Low and You've Become the Cause of Great Trouble to Me for I've Opened My Mouth to the Lord and I CanNot Take Back My Vow and She Said to Him My Father You Have Opened Your Mouth to the Lord Do to Me According to What Has Gone out of Your Mouth Now that the Lord Has Avenged You on Your Enemies on the Ammonites so She Said to Her Father Let this Thing Be Done for Me so the Idea So Far as You Read She's Going To Be Sacrificed Which God Forbids Human Sacrifice like He Clearly for Business in the Text of Scripture

So She Said to Her Father Let this Thing Be Done to Me Leave Me Alone for Two Months that I May Go Up and Down on the Mountains and Weep for My Virginity and I and My Companions She Never Got To Have Children Only Daughter Jeff this Whole Line Is Dead Now Right no Such Even a Grandson or a Something To Carry On the Family in a Sense Right No so There's There's no Carrying on She Was Let Me Weep for My Virginity I Am My Companion so He Said Go and Then You Sent Her and Away for Two Months and She Departed She and Her Companions and Wept for Her Virginity on the Mountains at the End of the Two Months She Returned to Her Father Who Did with Her According to His Vow that He Had Made

God Says the Firstborn That Comes out of every Room You Shall Sacrifice to Me and He Says but Your Firstborn Children You'LI Redeem Them with Money You'LI Get Bring an Offering Instead That Will Replace Them because I Will Not Let You Sacrifice People to Me Human Sacrifice Forbidden by God so What Do You Do When There's a Human That's To Be Sacrificed You Offer some Sort of Redemption Instead because You Don't Sacrifice Humans but Did jephthah Pay Attention to the Law I Don't Know the Text Doesn't Tell Us What He Did

I Will Note the Bible Does Not Support this It Simply Records It Just like It Did any Other of the Mistakes and Errors of these Men So How Does this Relate to How We View these Guys We Look at It I Take Them all as a Personal Warning against Me You May Serve the Lord Well in Your Life and Have some Gaping Mistake That You Carry Forward and that Is Remembered So To Speak and So li Don't Know every Time I See Someone Who Really Epically Fails I Take as a Personal Warning about My Own Walk with God and My Own Integrity
